CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus supplement, including documents incorporated by reference, contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), which involve risks, uncertainties, and assumptions. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, including statements regarding our: future performance; business strategy; future operations; estimates and projections of operating income, losses, costs and expenses, returns, cash flow and financial position; production levels on properties in which we have mineral and royalty interests; developmental activity by other operators; reserve estimates and our ability to replace or increase reserves; anticipated benefits or other effects of strategic transactions; and plans and objectives of management (including Diamondback’s (as defined herein) plans for developing our acreage, our cash dividend policy and repurchases of shares of our Common Stock, OpCo Units (each as defined herein) or our 4.900% Senior Notes due 2030 and 5.700% Senior Notes due 2035) are forward-looking statements. When used in this prospectus supplement, including documents incorporated by reference, the words “aim,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “continue,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “forecast,” “future,” “guidance,” “intend,” “may,” “model,” “outlook,” “plan,” “positioned,” “potential,” “predict,” “project,” “seek,” “should,” “target,” “will,” “would,” and similar expressions (including the negative of such terms) as they relate to us are intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain such identifying words. Although we believe that the expectations and assumptions reflected in our forward-looking statements are reasonable as and when made, they involve risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict and, in many cases, beyond our control. In particular, the factors discussed in this prospectus under the heading “Risk Factors” and detailed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025, as may be supplemented in our subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and in our other periodic and current reports filed with the SEC, could affect our actual results and cause our actual results to differ materially from expectations, estimates or assumptions expressed, forecasted or implied in such forward-looking statements.

Factors that could cause the outcomes to differ materially include (but are not limited to) the following:

- changes in supply and demand levels for oil, natural gas, and natural gas liquids, and the resulting impact on the price for those commodities;
- the impact of public health crises, including epidemic or pandemic diseases and any related company or government policies or actions;
- actions taken by the members of OPEC and its non-OPEC allies affecting the production and pricing of oil, as well as other domestic and global political, economic, or diplomatic developments;
- changes in general economic, business or industry conditions, including changes in foreign currency exchange rates, interest rates, inflation rates or instability in the financial sector;
- regional supply and demand factors, including delays, curtailment delays or interruptions of production on our mineral and royalty acreage, or governmental orders, rules or regulations that impose production limits on such acreage;
- federal and state legislative and regulatory initiatives relating to hydraulic fracturing, including the effect of existing and future laws and governmental regulations;
- physical and transition risks relating to climate change and changing political and social perspectives on climate change and other environmental, social and governance factors;
- risks from our cash dividend policy and uncertainties over future dividends;
- restrictions on the use of water, including limits on the use of produced water by our operators and a moratorium on new produced water well permits imposed by the Texas Railroad Commission in an effort to control induced seismicity in the Permian Basin;
- significant declines in prices for oil, natural gas, or natural gas liquids, which could require recognition of significant impairment charges;
- changes in U.S. energy, environmental, monetary and trade policies, including with respect to tariffs or other trade barriers and any resulting trade tensions;

- conditions in the capital, financial and credit markets, including the availability and pricing of capital for drilling and development by our limited number of operators and our ability to replace operators in time of bankruptcy or default;
- changes in availability or cost of rigs, equipment, raw materials, supplies and oilfield services impacting our operators;
- the inherent uncertainties over our estimated reserves, the development of our proved undeveloped reserves or the yield from project areas on our properties;
- the geographical concentration of our producing properties and reserves in the Permian Basin and in a small number of producing horizons;
- changes in safety, health, environmental, tax, and other regulations or requirements impacting us or our operators (including those addressing air emissions, water management, or the impact of global climate change);
- security threats, including cybersecurity threats and disruptions to our business from breaches of Diamondback's information technology systems, or from breaches of information technology systems of our operators or third parties with whom we transact business;
- lack of, or disruption in, access to adequate and reliable electrical power, internet and telecommunication infrastructure, information and computer systems, transportation, processing, storage, and other facilities impacting our operators;
- severe weather conditions and natural disasters;
- geopolitics, regional conflicts, acts of war or terrorist acts and the governmental or military response thereto;
- changes in the financial strength of counterparties to the credit facility and hedging contracts of our operating subsidiary;
- our substantial indebtedness and changes in our credit rating;
- failure to develop or acquire additional reserves and identify, complete or integrate acquisitions;
- our operational dependence on, and control by, Diamondback and potential conflicts of interest thereof; and
- other risks and factors discussed in this prospectus supplement or incorporated by reference herein.

In light of these factors, the events anticipated by our forward-looking statements contained herein, or incorporated by reference, may not occur at the time anticipated or at all. Moreover, new risks emerge from time to time. We cannot predict all risks, nor can we assess the impact of all factors on our business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated by any forward-looking statements we may make. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements made or incorporated by reference into this prospectus. All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this prospectus or, if earlier, as of the date they were made. We do not intend to, and disclaim any obligation to, update or revise any forward-looking statements, unless required by applicable law.

Viper Energy, Inc.

We are a publicly traded Delaware corporation focused on owning and acquiring mineral and royalty interests in oil and natural gas properties primarily in the Permian Basin. We operate in one reportable segment. Effective November 13, 2023, we converted our legal status from a Delaware limited partnership into a Delaware corporation.

Our primary business objective is to provide an attractive return to our stockholders by focusing on business results, generating robust free cash flow, reducing debt and protecting our balance sheet, while maintaining what we believe is a best-in-class cost structure. Our assets consist of mineral and royalty interests in oil and natural gas properties in the Permian Basin in West Texas, substantially all of which are leased to working interest owners who bear the costs of operation and development.

We are currently focused on oil and natural gas properties primarily in the Permian Basin, which is one of the oldest and most prolific producing basins in North America. The Permian Basin, which consists of approximately 75,000 square miles centered around Midland, Texas, has been a significant source of oil production since the 1920s. The Permian Basin is known to have a number of formations of oil and natural gas bearing rock throughout.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

We are registering the resale of up to 3,691,796 shares of Class A common stock covered by this prospectus supplement to allow the selling stockholders to sell or otherwise dispose of, from time to time, such shares of Class A common stock.

On July 1, 2026, we completed the acquisition of Riverbend Oil & Gas IX, L.L.C. (“Riverbend”), pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement, dated May 1, 2026 (the “Riverbend Purchase Agreement”), by and among Viper Energy, Inc. (for the purpose of this section only, “Viper”), Viper Energy Partners LP, a Delaware limited partnership and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Viper (“VEP”), Riverbend Oil & Gas IX (AIV), L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company (“ROG AIV”), and ROG IX, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (together with ROG AIV, the “ROG Sellers”). Pursuant to the terms of the Riverbend Purchase Agreement, VEP acquired all of the issued and outstanding equity interests of Riverbend under the terms and conditions of such agreement (the “Riverbend Acquisition”). The total consideration for the Riverbend Acquisition consisted of a combination of approximately $339 million in cash and 3,691,796 shares of Class A common stock (the “Stock Consideration”). Our issuance of the Stock Consideration was exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

In connection with the closing of the Riverbend Acquisition, Viper entered into a registration rights agreement (the “Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement”) with the ROG Sellers, pursuant to which the ROG Sellers received certain registration rights with respect to the Stock Consideration. Additionally, pursuant to the Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement, we agreed to file with the SEC, pursuant to the satisfaction of certain conditions, a shelf registration statement, or an amendment or supplement to an existing shelf registration statement, registering for resale the ROG Sellers’ Registrable Securities (as defined herein) and to cause such Registrable Securities to be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market. We also agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to keep the shelf registration statement relating to the Registrable Securities current and effective (or file a new shelf registration statement, if applicable) until such time as there are no Registrable Securities outstanding.

Pursuant to the Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement, the term “Registrable Securities” means, at any time, (i) any shares of our Class A common stock held by any ROG Seller and/or its permitted transferees immediately following the closing of the Riverbend Acquisition and (ii) any securities issued or issuable with respect to any such shares of Class A common stock by way of conversion, concession, dividend in the form of Class A common stock or split or other distribution, recapitalization or reclassification or similar transaction; provided, however, that such Registrable Securities will cease to be Registrable Securities when (x) they have been distributed to the public pursuant to an offering registered under the Securities Act, (y) the date they have all been distributed, or may all legally be distributed in one transaction, to the public pursuant to Rule 144 without volume or manner of sale restrictions or the need for “current public information” or (z) such securities shall have ceased to be outstanding.

We are registering the resale of the shares of Class A common stock covered by this prospectus supplement as required by the terms of the Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement.

Pursuant to the Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement, we will pay all expenses relating to the registration, offering and listing of these shares, except that the selling stockholders will pay any underwriting fees, discounts and commissions, placement fees of underwriters, broker commissions, transfer taxes and certain attorney’s fees. Pursuant to the terms of the Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement, we agreed to indemnify the selling stockholders against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and the selling stockholders have agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

As used herein, the term “selling stockholders” includes ROG AIV and any direct or indirect transferees of Registrable Securities entitled to registration rights under the Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement, including any securityholders that receive the respective Registrable Securities upon a distribution or liquidation, who have been assigned the rights of the transferor holder or holders under the Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement (in compliance with the terms thereof). This prospectus supplement does not cover subsequent sales of our Class A common stock purchased from the selling stockholders identified in this prospectus supplement.

The following table sets forth (i) the beneficial ownership of shares of our Class A common stock and our Class B common stock and (ii) the maximum number of shares of our Class A common stock that may be sold by or on behalf of each selling stockholder under the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. For purposes of the table below, we assume that the selling stockholders will sell all of the shares of our Class A common stock covered by this prospectus supplement. We cannot predict when or in what amount the selling stockholders may sell any of the shares offered in this prospectus and/or in any prospectus supplement, if at all. The table, the related footnotes or additional disclosure below also set forth the nature of any position, office or, if applicable, any other material relationship that each selling stockholder has had, within the past three years, with us or with any of our predecessors or affiliates, and the number of shares of our Class A common stock to be held by each selling stockholder after completion of the offering.

We prepared the table based on information provided to us by the selling stockholders. We have not sought to verify such information. Additionally, the selling stockholders may have sold or transferred some or all of the shares of our Class A common stock covered by this prospectus in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act since the date on which the information in the table was provided to us. Other information about the selling stockholders may also change over time.

These dispositions may be at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market price, at varying prices determined at the time of sale or at negotiated prices. These prices will be determined by the selling stockholders or by agreement between the selling stockholders and underwriters, broker-dealers or agents who may receive fees or commissions in connection with any such sale.

The selling stockholders may elect to make an in-kind distribution of their shares of Class A common stock to their respective members, partners or stockholders. To the extent that such members, partners or stockholders are not affiliates of ours, such members, partners or stockholders would thereby receive freely tradeable shares of our Class A common stock pursuant to the distribution through the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

The selling stockholders may also sell their shares of Class A common stock under Rule 144 or any other exemption from registration under the Securities Act, if, when and to the extent such exemption is available to them at the time of such sale, rather than under this prospectus, regardless of whether the securities are covered by this prospectus supplement.

The selling stockholders also may transfer their shares of Class A common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus supplement.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of Class A common stock, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated, but, except as set forth in a supplement to this prospectus, in the case of an agency transaction not in excess of a customary brokerage commission in compliance with Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, or FINRA, Rule 5110; and in the case of a principal transaction a markup or markdown in compliance with FINRA Rule 2121.

In connection with the sale of the Class A common stock, the selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the Class A common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling stockholders may also sell Class A common stock short and deliver these shares to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge the securities to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these shares. The selling stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or create one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of securities offered by this prospectus supplement, which securities such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus supplement (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

The selling stockholders may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of Class A common stock owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell Class A common stock from time to time under this prospectus supplement, or, to the extent required under the applicable securities laws, under an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424 or other applicable provision of the Securities Act.

If the selling stockholders use one or more underwriters in the sale, the underwriters will acquire shares of the Class A common stock covered by this prospectus supplement for their own account, and they may resell such shares from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. Shares of the Class A common stock covered by this prospectus supplement may be offered and sold to the public either through underwriting syndicates represented by one or more managing underwriters or directly by one or more of such firms. The selling stockholders and any underwriters, broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares of the Class A common stock covered by this prospectus supplement may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares of Class A common stock purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. Underwriters may resell the shares to or through dealers, and those dealers may receive compensation in the form of one or more discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and commissions from purchasers for which they may act as agents. Each selling stockholder has informed us that it does not have any written or oral agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the shares of Class A common stock.

A selling stockholder may enter into derivative transactions with third parties, or sell shares of Class A common stock not covered by this prospectus supplement to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. If the applicable prospectus supplement so indicates, in connection with those derivatives, the third parties may sell shares of Class A common stock covered by this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement, including in short sale transactions. If so, the third party may use shares of Class A common stock pledged by such selling stockholder or borrowed from such selling stockholder or others to settle those sales or to close out any related open borrowings of securities, and may use shares of Class A common stock received from such selling stockholder in settlement of those derivatives to close out any related open borrowings of securities. The third party in such sale transactions will be an underwriter and, if not identified in this prospectus, will be named in the applicable prospectus supplement (or a post-effective amendment).

A selling stockholder may otherwise loan or pledge shares of Class A common stock to a financial institution or other third party that in turn may sell the shares short using this prospectus and an applicable prospectus supplement. Such financial institution or other third party may transfer its economic short position to investors in such shares or in connection with a concurrent offering of other securities.

To the extent required, the shares of Class A common stock to be sold, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agents, dealers or underwriters and any applicable discounts, commissions, concessions or other compensation with respect to a particular offering will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement that includes this prospectus.

Pursuant to the Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement, we will pay all expenses relating to the registration, offering and listing of these shares of Class A common stock, except that the selling stockholders will pay any underwriting fees, discounts and commissions, placement fees of underwriters, broker commissions, transfer taxes and certain attorney's fees. Under applicable rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, any person engaged in the distribution of the resale shares of Class A common stock may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to the Class A common stock for the applicable restricted period, as defined in Regulation M, prior to the commencement of the distribution. In addition, the selling stockholders will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of the Class A common stock by the selling stockholders or any other person. We will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling stockholders and have informed them of the need to deliver a copy of this prospectus to each purchaser at or prior to the time of the sale (including by compliance with Rule 172 under the Securities Act).

There can be no assurances that the selling stockholders will sell, nor are the selling stockholders required to sell, any or all of the shares of Class A common stock offered under this prospectus supplement.

To the extent required pursuant to the Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement, this prospectus may be amended and/or supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution. If required by the terms of the Riverbend Registration Rights Agreement, we may add permitted transferees, successors and donees by prospectus supplement in instances where the permitted transferee, successor or donee has acquired its shares from holders named in this prospectus after the effective date of this prospectus. Permitted transferees, successors and assigns of identified selling stockholders may not be able to use this prospectus for resales until they are named in the selling stockholders table by prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment. See "Selling Stockholders." Additional selling stockholders may be named in one or more prospectus supplements.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO NON-U.S. HOLDERS OF OUR COMMON STOCK

The following discussion is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences to Non-U.S. Holders (as defined below) related to the purchase, ownership and disposition of our Class A common stock acquired pursuant to this offering, but does not purport to be a complete analysis of all potential tax effects. The effects of other U.S. federal tax laws, such as estate and gift tax laws, and any applicable state, local, or non-U.S. tax laws are not discussed. This summary is based on the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), U.S. Treasury regulations and administrative rulings and judicial decisions, all as in effect on the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. We have not sought any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS"), with respect to the statements made and the conclusions reached in the following summary, and there can be no assurance that the IRS or a court will not take a contrary position to that discussed below regarding the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership, and disposition of our Class A common stock.

This discussion is limited to Non-U.S. Holders that hold our Class A common stock as a "capital asset" within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all U.S. federal income tax consequences relevant to a Non-U.S. Holder's particular circumstances, including the impact of the Medicare contribution tax on net investment income and the alternative minimum tax. In addition, this summary does not address tax considerations applicable to investors that may be subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, such as (without limitation):

- banks, insurance companies or other financial institutions;
- tax-exempt organizations or governmental organizations;
- U.S. expatriates and former citizens or long-term residents of the United States;
- "qualified foreign pension funds" as defined in Section 897(l)(2) of the Code and entities all of the interests of which are held by qualified foreign pension funds;
- dealers or brokers in stock or securities or foreign currencies;
- traders in securities that use the mark-to-market method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes;
- "controlled foreign corporations," "foreign controlled foreign corporations," "passive foreign investment companies" and corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;
- partnerships or other pass-through entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes or holders of interests therein;
- persons that hold or are deemed to sell our Class A common stock under the constructive sale provisions of the Code;
- persons that hold or acquired our Class A common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan;
- persons that hold our Class A common stock as part of a straddle, appreciated financial position, synthetic security, hedge, conversion transaction or other integrated investment or risk reduction transaction; and
- persons subject to special tax accounting rules as a result of any item of gross income with respect to the stock being taken into account in an applicable financial statement.

If a partnership (including an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds our Class A common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and upon the activities of the partnership. Accordingly, we urge partners of a partnership (including an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) investing in our Class A common stock to consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax considerations of the purchase, ownership and disposition of our Class A common stock by such partnership.

THIS DISCUSSION IS FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS AS WELL AS ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP, AND DISPOSITION OF OUR CLASS A COMMON STOCK ARISING UNDER THE U.S. FEDERAL ESTATE OR GIFT TAX LAWS OR UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCAL, OR NON-U.S. TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE INCOME TAX TREATY.

Definition of a Non-U.S. Holder

A Non-U.S. Holder for purposes of this discussion is any beneficial owner of our Class A common stock that is neither a “U.S. person” nor an entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A U.S. person is any person that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is or is treated as any of the following:

- an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;
- an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source; or
- a trust (i) whose administration is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and that has one or more “United States persons” (within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) who have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (ii) that has made a valid election to be treated as a United States person for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Distributions

Distributions with respect to our Class A common stock will constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent paid from our current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. Amounts not treated as dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes will constitute a return of capital and first be applied against and reduce a Non-U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in its Class A common stock, but not below zero. Any excess will be treated as capital gain and will be treated as described below under “— Sale or Other Taxable Disposition.”

Subject to the discussion below on effectively connected income, dividends paid to a Non-U.S. Holder will be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30% of the gross amount of the dividends (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty, provided the Non-U.S. Holder furnishes a valid IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or other applicable documentation) certifying qualification for the lower treaty rate). A Non-U.S. Holder that does not timely furnish the required documentation, but that qualifies for a reduced treaty rate, may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding their entitlement to benefits under any applicable income tax treaty.

If dividends paid to a Non-U.S. Holder are effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder’s conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, the Non-U.S. Holder maintains a permanent establishment in the United States to which such dividends are attributable), the Non-U.S. Holder will be exempt from the U.S. federal withholding tax described above. To claim the exemption, the Non-U.S. Holder must furnish to the applicable withholding agent a valid IRS Form W-8ECI, certifying that the dividends are effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder’s conduct of a trade or business within the United States.

Any such effectively connected dividends will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular rates. A Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation also may be subject to a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on such effectively connected dividends, as adjusted for certain items. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding any applicable tax treaties that may provide for different rules.

Non-U.S. Holders are encouraged to consult their tax advisors regarding the withholding rules applicable to distributions on our Class A common stock, the requirement for claiming treaty benefits, and any procedures required to obtain a refund of any overwithheld amounts.

Sale or Other Taxable Disposition

Subject to the withholding requirements under FATCA (as defined below), a Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized upon the sale or other disposition of our Class A common stock unless:

- the Non-U.S. Holder is a nonresident alien individual who is present in the United States for a period or periods aggregating 183 days or more during the calendar year in which the sale or disposition occurs and certain other conditions are met;
- the gain is effectively connected with a trade or business conducted by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States); or
- our Class A common stock constitutes a U.S. real property interest (“USRPI”) by reason of our status as a U.S. real property holding corporation (“USRPHC”), as defined in the Code and applicable U.S. Treasury regulations, for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

A Non-U.S. Holder described in the first bullet point above will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount of such gain realized upon the sale or other taxable disposition of our Class A common stock, which generally may be offset by U.S. source capital losses of the Non-U.S. Holder even though the individual is not considered a resident of the United States, provided the Non-U.S. Holder has timely filed U.S. federal income tax returns with respect to such losses.

A Non-U.S. Holder whose gain is described in the second bullet point generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the regular rates. A Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation also may be subject to a branch profits tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on such effectively connected gain, as adjusted for certain items.

Generally, a corporation is a USRPHC if the fair market value of its United States real property interests equals or exceeds 50% of the sum of the fair market value of its worldwide real property interests and its other assets used or held for use in a trade or business. We believe that we currently are, and expect to remain for the foreseeable future, a USRPHC for U.S. federal income tax purposes. However, as long as our Class A common stock continues to be “regularly traded on an established securities market” (within the meaning of U.S. Treasury regulations), only a Non-U.S. Holder that actually or constructively owns, or owned at any time during the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date of the disposition or the Non-U.S. Holder’s holding period for the Class A common stock, more than 5% of our Class A common stock will be taxable on gain realized on the disposition of our Class A common stock as a result of our status as a USRPHC. If our Class A common stock were not considered to be “regularly traded on an established securities market” during the calendar year in which the relevant disposition by a Non-U.S. Holder occurs, such Non-U.S. Holder (regardless of the percentage of our Class A common stock owned) would be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a taxable disposition of our Class A common stock (as described in the preceding paragraph), and a 15% withholding tax would apply to the gross proceeds from such disposition. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors with respect to the application of the foregoing rules to their ownership and disposition of our Class A common stock.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Payments of dividends on our Class A common stock will not be subject to backup withholding, provided the applicable withholding agent does not have actual knowledge or reason to know the holder is a United States person and the holder either certifies its non-U.S. status, such as by furnishing a valid IRS Form W-8BEN, W-8BEN-E, or W-8ECI, or otherwise establishes an exemption. However, information returns are required to be filed with the IRS in connection with any distributions on our Class A common stock paid to the Non-U.S. Holder, regardless of whether such distributions constitute dividends or whether any tax was actually withheld. In addition, proceeds of the sale or other taxable disposition of our Class A common stock within the United States or conducted through certain U.S.-related brokers generally will not be subject to backup withholding or information reporting if the applicable withholding agent receives the certification described above and does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that such holder is a United States person or the holder otherwise establishes an exemption. Proceeds of a disposition of our Class A common stock conducted through a non-U.S. office of a non-U.S. broker generally will not be subject to backup withholding or information reporting.

Copies of information returns that are filed with the IRS may also be made available under the provisions of an applicable treaty or agreement to the tax authorities of the country in which the Non-U.S. Holder resides or is established.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against a Non-U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Additional Withholding Tax on Payments Made to Foreign Accounts

Withholding taxes may be imposed under Sections 1471 to 1474 of the Code (such Sections commonly referred to as the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, or "FATCA") on certain types of payments made to non-U.S. financial institutions and certain other non-U.S. entities. Specifically, a 30% withholding tax may be imposed on dividends on, or (subject to the proposed U.S. Treasury regulations discussed below) gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of, our common stock paid to a "foreign financial institution" or a "non-financial foreign entity" (each as defined in the Code), unless (1) the foreign financial institution undertakes certain diligence and reporting obligations, (2) the non-financial foreign entity either certifies it does not have any "substantial United States owners" (as defined in the Code) or furnishes identifying information regarding each substantial United States owner, or (3) the foreign financial institution or non-financial foreign entity otherwise qualifies for an exemption from these rules. If the payee is a foreign financial institution and is subject to the diligence and reporting requirements in (1) above, it must enter into an agreement with the U.S. Department of the Treasury requiring, among other things, that it undertake to identify accounts held by certain "specified United States persons" or "United States owned foreign entities" (each as defined in the Code), annually report certain information about such accounts, and withhold 30% on certain payments to non-compliant foreign financial institutions and certain other account holders. Foreign financial institutions located in jurisdictions that have an intergovernmental agreement with the United States governing FATCA may be subject to different rules.

Under the applicable U.S. Treasury regulations and administrative guidance, withholding under FATCA generally applies to payments of dividends on our common stock. While withholding under FATCA would have applied also to payments of gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of stock on or after January 1, 2019, proposed U.S. Treasury regulations eliminate FATCA withholding on payments of gross proceeds entirely, and the preamble to the proposed U.S. Treasury regulations provides that taxpayers may rely on these proposed U.S. Treasury regulations until final U.S. Treasury regulations are issued.

INVESTORS CONSIDERING THE PURCHASE OF OUR CLASS A COMMON STOCK ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS AND THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF U.S. FEDERAL ESTATE AND GIFT TAX LAWS AND ANY STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. TAX LAWS AND TAX TREATIES.

CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus, including documents incorporated by reference, contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), which involve risks, uncertainties, and assumptions. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, including statements regarding our: future performance; business strategy; future operations; estimates and projections of operating income, losses, costs and expenses, returns, cash flow, and financial position; production levels on properties in which we have mineral and royalty interests, developmental activity by other operators; reserve estimates and our ability to replace or increase reserves; anticipated benefits of the acquisition of Sitio Royalties Corp. (“Sitio” and such acquisition, the “Sitio Acquisition”) or of other strategic transactions (including other acquisitions or divestitures); and plans and objectives of management (including Diamondback’s plans for developing our acreage, our cash dividend policy and repurchases of shares of our Class A common stock and/or senior notes) are forward-looking statements. When used in this prospectus, including documents incorporated by reference, the words “aim,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “continue,” “could,” “estimate,” “expect,” “forecast,” “future,” “guidance,” “intend,” “may,” “model,” “outlook,” “plan,” “positioned,” “potential,” “predict,” “project,” “seek,” “should,” “target,” “will,” “would,” and similar expressions (including the negative of such terms) as they relate to us are intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain such identifying words. Although we believe that the expectations and assumptions reflected in our forward-looking statements are reasonable as and when made, they involve risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict and, in many cases, beyond our control. Accordingly, forward-looking statements are not guarantees of our future performance. In particular, the factors discussed in this prospectus under the heading “Risk Factors” and detailed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024, as may be supplemented in our subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and in our other periodic and current reports filed with the SEC, could affect our actual results and cause our actual results to differ materially from expectations, estimates or assumptions expressed, forecasted or implied in such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause our outcomes to differ materially include (but are not limited to) the following:

- restrictions on the use of water, including limits on the use of produced water by our operators and new requirements for new Class II produced water well permits recently imposed by the Texas Railroad Commission in an effort to enhance the integrity of the underground disposal of produced water in the Permian Basin;
- significant declines in prices for oil, natural gas, or natural gas liquids, which could require recognition of significant impairment charges;
- changes in U.S. energy, environmental, monetary and trade policies, including with respect to tariffs or other trade barriers, and any resulting trade tensions;

- conditions in the capital, financial and credit markets, including the availability and pricing of capital for drilling and development by our operators and environmental and social responsibility projects undertaken by Diamondback and our other operators;
- changes in availability or cost of rigs, equipment, raw materials, supplies and oilfield services impacting our operators;

Risk Factors included in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K incorporated herein by reference, as well as other risks and uncertainties that may be identified in our subsequent filings with the SEC.

The foregoing list of factors should not be construed as exhaustive. In light of these factors, the events anticipated by our forward-looking statements contained herein, or incorporated by reference, may not occur at the time anticipated or at all. Moreover, new risks emerge from time to time. We cannot predict all risks, nor can we assess the impact of all factors on our business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated by any forward-looking statements we may make. Accordingly, you should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements made or incorporated by reference into this prospectus. All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this prospectus or, if earlier, as of the date they were made. Recent Acquisitions

Sitio Acquisition

On August 19, 2025, we completed the acquisition of Sitio, pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated June 2, 2025 (the “Sitio Merger Agreement”), by and among VNOM Sub, Inc. (f/k/a Viper Energy, Inc.) (for the purpose of this section only, “Old Viper”), the Operating Company, Sitio, Sitio Royalties Operating Partnership, LP, a Delaware limited partnership (“Sitio Opco”), Viper Energy, Inc. (f/k/a New Cobra Pubco, Inc.) (for the purpose of this section only, “Viper”), Cobra Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Viper (“Viper Merger Sub”), and Scorpion Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Viper (“Sitio Merger Sub”).

Pursuant to the terms of the Sitio Merger Agreement, Viper acquired Sitio in an all-equity transaction through: (i) the merger of Sitio Merger Sub with and into Sitio, with Sitio continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Viper (the “Sitio Pubco Merger”), (ii) the merger of Viper Merger Sub with and into Old Viper, with Old Viper continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Viper (the “Viper Pubco Merger” and, together with the Sitio Pubco Merger, the “Pubco Mergers”), and (iii) the merger of Sitio Opco with and into the Operating Company, with the Operating Company continuing as the surviving entity (the “Opco Merger” and, together with the Pubco Mergers, the “Mergers”), in each case on the terms set forth in the Sitio Merger Agreement.

As a result of the Mergers, among other things:

- at the effective time of the Sitio Pubco Merger (the “Sitio Pubco Merger Effective Time”, which was 12:01 a.m., Eastern Time, on August 19, 2025), (A) each share of Sitio’s Class A common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Sitio Pubco Merger Effective Time (other than certain excluded shares) was cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive 0.4855 fully paid and nonassessable shares of Viper’s Class A common stock, and (B) each share of Sitio’s Class C common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Sitio Pubco Merger Effective Time was automatically cancelled and ceased to exist;
- at the effective time of the Viper Pubco Merger (the “Viper Pubco Merger Effective Time”, which was 12:01 a.m., Eastern Time, on August 19, 2025), (A) each share of Old Viper’s Class A common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Viper Pubco Merger Effective Time (other than certain excluded shares) was cancelled and automatically converted into one share of Viper’s Class A common stock and (B) each share of Old Viper’s Class B common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Viper Pubco Merger Effective Time was automatically cancelled and converted into one share of Viper’s Class B common stock, par value $0.000001 per share (our “Class B common stock”); and
- following the Pubco Mergers, at the effective time of the Opco Merger (the “Opco Merger Effective Time”, which was 12:02 a.m., Eastern Time, on August 19, 2025), (A) each common unit representing limited partnership interests in Sitio Opco (“Sitio Opco Units”) held by Old Viper, Sitio, Viper, or any of their wholly owned subsidiaries immediately prior to the Opco Merger Effective Time automatically converted into 0.4855 Opco Units and (B) each other Sitio Opco Unit issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Opco Merger Effective Time (other than certain excluded units) converted into the right to receive (i) 0.4855 Opco Units and (ii) 0.4855 shares of Viper’s Class B common stock.

At the closing of the Sitio Acquisition, we entered into a registration rights agreement (the “Sitio Registration Rights Agreement”) with certain holders of Sitio Opco Units as of immediately prior to the closing (who are now holders of Opco Units and our Class B common stock following the Mergers) (the “Sitio RRA Parties”), pursuant to which the Sitio RRA Parties received certain registration rights with respect to their registrable securities, consisting of shares of our Class A common stock that will be obtained upon the exchange of shares of our Class B common stock (together with an equal number of Opco Units) in accordance with the terms of the Fourth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Operating Company. In addition, at the closing of the Sitio Acquisition, we assumed registration rights agreements with (i) certain affiliates of Morita Ranches Minerals, LLC (such affiliates, the “Morita Ranches Equity Recipients” and such agreement, the “Morita Ranches Registration Rights Agreement”), (ii) Tumbleweed Royalty IV, LLC (“TWR IV” and such agreement, the “TWR Registration Rights Agreement”) and (iii) Diamondback (such agreement, the “Diamondback Registration Rights Agreement”). The Sitio Registration Rights Agreement, the Morita Ranches Registration Rights Agreement, the TWR Registration Rights Agreement and the Diamondback Registration Rights Agreement are collectively referred to in this prospectus as the “Registration Rights Agreements.”

Drop Down Transaction

On January 30, 2025, Viper Energy and the Operating Company, as buyer parties, entered into a definitive equity purchase agreement (the “Drop Down Purchase Agreement”) with Endeavor and 1979 Royalties, LP and 1979 Royalties GP, LLC (together, the “Endeavor Subsidiaries”), as seller parties, each of which is a subsidiary of Viper Energy’s parent, Diamondback. The Drop Down Purchase Agreement provided for the acquisition by the Operating Company of all of the issued and outstanding equity interests of the Endeavor Subsidiaries under the terms and conditions of such agreement (the “Drop Down”).

On May 1, 2025, Viper Energy and the Operating Company completed the Drop Down for total consideration consisting of (i) $1.0 billion in cash and (ii) the issuance to Endeavor of 69,626,640 Opco Units and an equivalent number of shares of our Class B common stock, subject to transaction costs and certain customary post-closing adjustments. The Opco Units and shares of our Class B common stock issued at the closing of the Drop Down are exchangeable from time to time for our Class A common stock (that is, one Opco Unit and one share of our Class B common stock, together, are exchangeable for one share of our Class A common stock). The mineral and royalty interests acquired by the Operating Company in the Drop Down represent approximately 24,446 net royalty acres in the Permian Basin (the “Endeavor Mineral and Royalty Interests”), approximately 69% of which are currently operated by Diamondback. Viper Energy funded the cash consideration for the Drop Down with proceeds from its previously reported underwritten public offering of shares of our Class A common stock completed on February 3, 2025 and borrowings under the Operating Company’s revolving credit facility.

USE OF PROCEEDS

All of the shares of Class A common stock covered by this prospectus are being offered and sold by the selling stockholders identified in this prospectus and/or in any prospectus supplement. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the Class A common stock by the selling stockholders. See “Selling Stockholders” and “Plan of Distribution” for additional information.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

We have prepared this prospectus to allow the selling stockholders identified below and/or in any prospectus supplement to offer and sell from time to time, for their own account, up to an aggregate of 203,172,011 shares of our Class A common stock, which may be obtained by exchanging shares of our Class B common stock (including shares obtainable through the exercise of certain options) held by Diamondback, TWR IV, the Morita Ranches Equity Recipients, the Sitio RRA Parties (collectively, the “RRA Counterparties”) and/or their permitted transferees (under the applicable Registration Rights Agreement), together with a corresponding number of Opco Units. Additional selling stockholders may be identified in one or more prospectus supplements.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreements, the RRA Counterparties received certain registration rights with respect to their registrable securities, consisting of shares of our Class A common stock, which may be obtained by exchanging shares of our Class B common stock (including shares obtainable through the exercise of certain options), together with a corresponding number of Opco Units. Additionally, pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreements, we agreed to file with the SEC, pursuant to the satisfaction of certain conditions, a shelf registration statement registering for resale the RRA Counterparties’ Registrable Securities (as such term is defined below) and to cause such Registrable Securities to be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market. We also agreed to use our reasonable best efforts (or in the case of the Diamondback Registration Rights Agreement, commercially reasonable efforts) to keep the shelf registration statement relating to the Registrable Securities current and effective (or file a new shelf registration statement, if applicable) until such time as there are no Registrable Securities outstanding.

For purposes of the Registration Rights Agreements, other than the Diamondback Registration Rights Agreement, the term “Registrable Securities” generally means, at any time, (i) any shares of our Class A common stock acquired (or that may be acquired) by any RRA Counterparty and/or its permitted transferees, pursuant to the terms of the Fourth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Operating Company and/or such RRA Counterparty’s applicable exchange agreement and (ii) any securities issued or issuable with respect to any such shares of Class A common stock by way of conversion, concession, dividend in the form of Class A common stock or split or other distribution, recapitalization or reclassification or similar transaction; provided, however, that such Registrable Securities will cease to be Registrable Securities on (x) the date they have been distributed to the public pursuant to an offering registered under the Securities Act or (y) the later of (1) the date they have all been distributed, or may all legally be distributed in one transaction, to the public pursuant to Rule 144 without volume or manner of sale restrictions or the need for “current public information” or (2) (A) with respect to the TWR Registration Rights Agreement, the date on which TWR IV and its permitted transferees collectively own a number of Opco Units and shares of our Class A common stock for which Opco Units (together with a corresponding number of shares of our Class B common stock) were exchanged that is less than 50% of the aggregate number of Opco Units issued to the Morita Ranches Equity Recipients on February 14, 2025 plus the number of Opco Units issued to TWR IV on October 1, 2024 (as such number may be adjusted pursuant to (ii) above), (B) with respect to the Morita Ranches Registration Rights Agreement, the date on which the Morita Ranches Equity Recipients and their permitted transferees collectively own a number of Opco Units and shares of our Class A common stock for which Opco Units (together with a corresponding number of shares of our Class B common stock) were exchanged that is less than 50% of the aggregate number of Opco Units issued to the Morita Ranches Equity Recipients on February 14, 2025 plus the number of Opco Units issued to TWR IV on October 1, 2024 (as such number may be adjusted pursuant to (ii) above) and (C) with respect to the Sitio Registration Rights Agreement, the date on which the Sitio RRA Parties and their permitted transferees collectively own a number of Opco Units and shares of our Class A common stock for which Opco Units (together with a corresponding number of shares of our Class B common stock) were exchanged that is less than 50% of the number of Opco Units issued to the Sitio RRA Parties on August 19, 2025. For the purpose of the Diamondback Registration Rights Agreement, the term “Registrable Securities” means (i) the aggregate number of shares of our Class A common stock acquired or that may be acquired by Diamondback or its subsidiaries in accordance with Diamondback’s exchange agreement; (ii) any securities of ours or our subsidiaries issuable with respect to the securities referred to in clause (i); and (iii) any other shares of our Class A common stock or other securities of ours held by Diamondback or its subsidiaries from time to time.

Under the Diamondback Registration Rights Agreement, the TWR Registration Rights Agreement and the Morita Ranches Registration Rights Agreement, the applicable selling stockholders may request to sell all or any portion of their Registrable Securities in an underwritten offering that is registered pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part; provided, however, that Diamondback, TWR IV, the Morita Ranches Equity Recipients and their respective permitted transferees, in the aggregate, will be entitled to make a demand for a total of three underwritten shelf takedowns and the aggregate amount of Registrable Securities included in any such underwritten shelf takedown must be at least (i) in the case of the Diamondback Registration Rights Agreement, an amount reasonably expected to result in gross proceeds of $50 million and (ii) in the case of the TWR Registration Rights Agreement and the Morita Ranches Registration Rights Agreement, the lesser of the amount reasonably expected to result in aggregate gross proceeds of $100 million (before the deduction of underwriting discounts) and the remainder of the Registrable Securities held by all such holders. For the avoidance of doubt, an underwritten shelf takedown will not include an “at the market” program.

We have prepared this prospectus and the registration statement of which it is a part to fulfill our registration requirements under the Registration Rights Agreements.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreements, we will pay all expenses relating to the registration, offering and listing of these shares, except that the selling stockholders will pay any underwriting fees, discounts and commissions, placement fees of underwriters, broker commissions, transfer taxes and certain attorney’s fees. Pursuant to the terms of the Registration Rights Agreements, we agreed to indemnify the selling stockholders against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and the selling stockholders have agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, which may arise from any written information furnished to us by the selling stockholders expressly for use in this prospectus and/or in any prospectus supplement, as applicable.

As used herein, the term “selling stockholders” includes the RRA Counterparties and any direct or indirect transferees of Registrable Securities entitled to registration rights under the applicable Registration Rights Agreement, including any securityholders that receive the respective Registrable Securities upon a distribution or liquidation, who have been assigned the rights of the transferor holder or holders under the applicable Registration Rights Agreement (in compliance with the terms thereof). This prospectus does not cover subsequent sales of our Class A common stock purchased from the selling stockholders identified in this prospectus and/or in any prospectus supplement.

The following table sets forth (i) the beneficial ownership of shares of our Class A common stock and our Class B common stock and (ii) the maximum number of shares of our Class A common stock that may be sold by or on behalf of each selling stockholder under the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. For purposes of the table below, we assume that the selling stockholders will sell all of the shares of our Class A common stock covered by this prospectus. We cannot predict when or in what amount the selling stockholders may sell any of the shares offered in this prospectus and/or in any prospectus supplement, if at all. The table, the related footnotes or additional disclosure below also set forth the nature of any position, office or, if applicable, any other material relationship that each selling stockholder has had, within the past three years, with us or with any of our predecessors or affiliates, and the number of shares of our Class A common stock to be held by each selling stockholder after completion of the offering.

We prepared the table based on information provided to us by the selling stockholders. We have not sought to verify such information. Additionally, the selling stockholders may have sold or transferred some or all of the shares of our Class A common stock covered by this prospectus in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act since the date on which the information in the table was provided to us. Other information about the selling stockholders may also change over time.

Except as otherwise indicated, each of the RRA Counterparties has sole voting and dispositive power with respect to the shares included in the table below.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

The following description of our Class A common stock, our amended and restated certificate of incorporation (our “certificate of incorporation”) and our amended and restated bylaws (our “bylaws”) are summaries thereof and are qualified by reference to our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws, copies of which have been filed with the SEC.

Authorized Capital Stock

As of the date of this prospectus, our authorized capital stock consists of (i) 1,000,000,000 shares of our Class A common stock, (ii) 1,000,000,000 shares of our Class B common stock (together with our Class A common stock, the “common stock”), and (iii) 100,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.000001 per share. Each share of our Class B common stock is exchangeable, at the discretion of the holder of such share of our Class B common stock, together with one Opco Unit, into one share of our Class A common stock.

Common Stock

Holders of shares of common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. Holders of Class A common stock and Class B common stock vote together as a single class. Shares of common stock do not have cumulative voting rights, which means that the holders of more than 50% of the shares voting for the election of the board of directors can elect all the directors to be elected at that time, and, in such event, the holders of the remaining shares will be unable to elect any directors to be elected at that time. Our certificate of incorporation denies stockholders any preemptive rights to acquire or subscribe for any stock, obligation, warrant or other securities of ours. Holders of shares of our common stock have no redemption or conversion rights nor are they entitled to the benefits of any sinking fund provisions.

In the event of our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the remaining assets of the Company available for distribution shall (i) first be distributed, pari passu, to the holders of Class B common stock, ratably in proportion to the number of shares of Class B common stock, until the holders of all outstanding Class B common stock have received $0.014 (which amount is adjusted accordingly in the case of any stock split, subdivision or combination with respect to Class B common stock) in respect of each share of Class B common stock then outstanding and (ii) then be distributed, pari passu, to the holders of all outstanding shares of Class A common stock, ratably in proportion to the number of shares of Class A common stock.

Holders of record of shares of Class A common stock are entitled to receive dividends when and if declared by the board of directors out of any assets legally available for such dividends, subject to (i) the rights of all outstanding shares of capital stock ranking senior to the common stock in respect of dividends and (ii) to any dividend restrictions contained in debt agreements. Holders of Class B common stock are entitled to receive a mandatory cash dividend, paid quarterly, in an amount per share of Class B common stock equal to (A) $20,000 divided by (B) the number of shares of Class B common stock then outstanding. All outstanding shares of our common stock are fully paid and nonassessable. As of August 25, 2025, there were 169,318,801 shares of Class A common stock and 193,078,341 shares of Class B common stock outstanding.

Preferred Stock

Our board of directors is authorized to issue up to 100,000,000 shares of preferred stock in one or more series. The board of directors may fix for each series:

- the distinctive serial designation and number of shares of the series;
- the voting powers and the right, if any, to elect a director or directors;
- the terms of office of any directors the holders of preferred shares are entitled to elect;
- the dividend rights, if any;

- the terms of redemption, and the amount of and provisions regarding any sinking fund for the purchase or redemption thereof;
- the liquidation preferences and the amounts payable on dissolution or liquidation;
- the terms and conditions under which shares of the series may or shall be converted into any other series or class of stock or debt of the Company; and
- any other terms or provisions which the board of directors is legally authorized to fix or alter.

We do not need stockholder approval to issue or fix the terms of the preferred stock. The actual effect of the authorization of the preferred stock upon your rights as holders of common stock is unknown until our board of directors determines the specific rights of owners of any series of preferred stock. Depending upon the rights granted to any series of preferred stock, your voting power, liquidation preference or other rights could be adversely affected. Preferred stock may be issued in acquisitions or for other corporate purposes. Issuance in connection with a stockholder rights plan or other takeover defense could have the effect of making it more difficult for a third party to acquire, or of discouraging a third party from acquiring, control of the Company. We currently have no outstanding preferred stock and have no present plans to issue any shares of preferred stock.

Related Party Transactions and Corporate Opportunities

Subject to the limitations of applicable law, our certificate of incorporation, among other things:

- permits us to enter into transactions with entities in which one or more of our officers or directors are financially or otherwise interested so long as it has been approved by our board of directors;
- permits certain of our stockholders, officers and directors, including our non-employee directors, to conduct business that competes with us and to make investments in any kind of property in which we may make investments; and
- provides that if certain of our officers or directors, including our non-employee directors, becomes aware of a potential business opportunity, transaction or other matter (other than one expressly offered to that director or officer solely in his or her capacity as our director or officer), that director or officer will have no duty to communicate or offer that opportunity to us, and will be permitted to communicate or offer that opportunity to any other entity or individual and that director or officer will not be deemed to have (i) acted in a manner inconsistent with his or her fiduciary duty to us or our stockholders regarding the opportunity or (ii) acted in bad faith or in a manner inconsistent with our best interests.

Anti-takeover Effects of Provisions of Our Certificate of Incorporation and Our Bylaws

Some provisions of our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws contain provisions that could make it more difficult to acquire us by means of a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise, or to remove our incumbent officers and directors. These provisions, summarized below, are expected to discourage coercive takeover practices and inadequate takeover bids. These provisions are also designed to encourage persons seeking to acquire control of us to first negotiate with our board of directors. We believe that the benefits of increased protection of our potential ability to negotiate with the proponent of an unfriendly or unsolicited proposal to acquire or restructure us outweigh the disadvantages of discouraging such proposals because negotiation of such proposals could result in an improvement of their terms.

Undesignated preferred stock. The ability to authorize and issue undesignated preferred stock may enable our board of directors to render more difficult or discourage an attempt to change control of us by means of a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise. For example, if in the due exercise of its fiduciary obligations, the board of directors were to determine that a takeover proposal is not in our best interest, the board of directors could cause shares of preferred stock to be issued without stockholder approval in one or more private offerings or other transactions that might dilute the voting or other rights of the proposed acquirer or insurgent stockholder or stockholder group.

Stockholder meetings. Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws provide that a special meeting of stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, by a resolution adopted by a majority of our board of directors, assuming there are no vacancies or by the Chairman of the Board following receipt of a written request of one or more of our stockholders (acting on their own behalf and not by assigning or delegating their rights to any other person or entity) that together have continuously held, for their own accounts, beneficial ownership of at least 20% aggregate “net long position” (as such term is defined therein) in our issued and outstanding voting stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors for at least one year prior to the date such request is delivered to us and at the special meeting date. Special meetings of our stockholders may not be called by any other person or persons.

Requirements for advance notification of stockholder nominations and proposals. Our bylaws establish advance notice procedures with respect to stockholder proposals and the nomination of candidates for election as directors, other than nominations made by or at the direction of the board of directors.

Board Designees. Pursuant to our bylaws, Diamondback has the right to designate up to three persons to serve as directors for so long as Diamondback along with its affiliates collectively own at least 25% of the outstanding common stock.

Stockholder action by written consent. Our certificate of incorporation provides that, except as may otherwise be provided with respect to the rights of the holders of preferred stock, no action that is required or permitted to be taken by our stockholders at any annual or special meeting may be effected by written consent of stockholders in lieu of a meeting of stockholders, unless the action to be effected by written consent of stockholders and the taking of such action by such written consent have expressly been approved in advance by our board. This provision, which may not be amended except by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the voting power of all then outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class, makes it difficult for stockholders to initiate or effect an action by written consent that is opposed by our board.

Amendment of the bylaws. Under Delaware law, the power to adopt, amend or repeal bylaws is conferred upon the stockholders. A corporation may, however, in its certificate of incorporation also confer upon the board of directors the power to adopt, amend or repeal its bylaws. Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws grant our board the power to adopt, amend and repeal our bylaws at any regular or special meeting of the board on the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors, assuming there are no vacancies. Our stockholders may adopt, amend or repeal our bylaws but only at any regular or special meeting of stockholders by an affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the voting power of all then outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

Removal of Directors. Our certificate of incorporation provides that members of our board of directors may only be removed by the affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the voting power of all then outstanding shares of capital stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class.

Additionally, an increase in the number of authorized shares of our common stock, could be used to make it more difficult to, or discourage an attempt to, obtain control of the Company by means of a takeover bid that our board of directors determines is not in our best interests or the best interests of our stockholders.

The provisions of our certificate of incorporation and bylaws could have the effect of discouraging others from attempting hostile takeovers and, as a consequence, they may also inhibit temporary fluctuations in the market price of our common stock that often result from actual or rumored hostile takeover attempts. These provisions may also have the effect of preventing changes in our management. It is possible that these provisions could make it more difficult to accomplish transactions which stockholders may otherwise deem to be in their best interests.

Choice of Forum

Our certificate of incorporation provides that unless we consent in writing to the selection of an alternative forum, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware will be the sole and exclusive forum for: (i) any derivative action or proceeding brought on our behalf; (ii) any action asserting a claim of breach of a fiduciary duty owed by any of our directors, officers or other employees to us or our stockholders; (iii) any action asserting a claim against us arising pursuant to any provision of the DGCL or our certificate of incorporation or bylaws; or (iv) any action asserting a claim against us pertaining to internal affairs of the Company. Our certificate of incorporation also provides that any person or entity purchasing or otherwise acquiring any interest in shares of our capital stock will be deemed to have notice of and to have consented to this choice of forum provision. It is possible that a court of law could rule that the choice of forum provision contained in our certificate of incorporation is inapplicable or unenforceable if it is challenged in a proceeding or otherwise.

This provision would not apply to claims arising under the Securities Act, the Exchange Act or other federal securities laws for which there is exclusive federal or concurrent federal and state jurisdiction. To the extent that any such claims may be based upon federal law claims, Section 27 of the Exchange Act creates exclusive federal jurisdiction over all suits brought to enforce any duty or liability created by the Exchange Act or the rules and regulations thereunder. Furthermore, Section 22 of the Securities Act creates concurrent jurisdiction for federal and state courts over all suits brought to enforce any duty or liability created by the Securities Act or the rules and regulations thereunder. Accordingly, both state and federal courts have jurisdiction to entertain claims under the Securities Act.

These dispositions may be at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market price, at varying prices determined at the time of sale or at negotiated prices. These prices will be determined by the selling stockholders or by agreement between the selling stockholders and underwriters, broker-dealers or agents who may receive fees or commissions in connection with any such sale.

The selling stockholders may use any one or more of the following methods when disposing of the offered Class A common stock:

- in option transactions;
- a combination of any such methods of sale; and
- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling stockholders may elect to make an in-kind distribution of their shares of Class A common stock to their respective members, partners or stockholders. To the extent that such members, partners or stockholders are not affiliates of ours, such members, partners or stockholders would thereby receive freely tradeable shares of our Class A common stock pursuant to the distribution through the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

The selling stockholders may also sell their shares of Class A common stock under Rule 144 or any other exemption from registration under the Securities Act, if, when and to the extent such exemption is available to them at the time of such sale, rather than under this prospectus.

The selling stockholders also may transfer their shares of Class A common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of Class A common stock, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated, but, except as set forth in a supplement to this prospectus, in the case of an agency transaction not in excess of a customary brokerage commission in compliance with Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, or FINRA, Rule 5110; and in the case of a principal transaction a markup or markdown in compliance with FINRA Rule 2121.

In connection with the sale of the Class A common stock, the selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the Class A common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The selling stockholders may also sell Class A common stock short and deliver these shares to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge the securities to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these shares. The selling stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or create one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of securities offered by this prospectus, which securities such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

The selling stockholders may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of Class A common stock owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell Class A common stock from time to time under this prospectus, or, to the extent required under the applicable securities laws, under an amendment to this prospectus under Rule 424 or other applicable provision of the Securities Act.

If the selling stockholders use one or more underwriters in the sale, the underwriters will acquire shares of the Class A common stock covered by this prospectus for their own account, and they may resell such shares from time to time in one or more transactions, including negotiated transactions, at a fixed public offering price or at varying prices determined at the time of sale. Shares of the Class A common stock covered by this prospectus may be offered and sold to the public either through underwriting syndicates represented by one or more managing underwriters or directly by one or more of such firms. The selling stockholders and any underwriters, broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares of the Class A common stock covered by this prospectus may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares of Class A common stock purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. Underwriters may resell the shares to or through dealers, and those dealers may receive compensation in the form of one or more discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and commissions from purchasers for which they may act as agents. Each selling stockholder has informed us that it does not have any written or oral agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the shares of Class A common stock.

A selling stockholder may enter into derivative transactions with third parties, or sell shares of Class A common stock not covered by this prospectus to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. If the applicable prospectus supplement so indicates, in connection with those derivatives, the third parties may sell shares of Class A common stock covered by this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement, including in short sale transactions. If so, the third party may use shares of Class A common stock pledged by such selling stockholder or borrowed from such selling stockholder or others to settle those sales or to close out any related open borrowings of securities, and may use shares of Class A common stock received from such selling stockholder in settlement of those derivatives to close out any related open borrowings of securities. The third party in such sale transactions will be an underwriter and, if not identified in this prospectus, will be named in the applicable prospectus supplement (or a post-effective amendment).

A selling stockholder may otherwise loan or pledge shares of Class A common stock to a financial institution or other third party that in turn may sell the shares short using this prospectus and an applicable prospectus supplement. Such financial institution or other third party may transfer its economic short position to investors in such shares or in connection with a concurrent offering of other securities.

To the extent required, the shares of Class A common stock to be sold, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the names of any agents, dealers or underwriters and any applicable discounts, commissions, concessions or other compensation with respect to a particular offering will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement or, if appropriate, a post-effective amendment to the registration statement that includes this prospectus.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreements, we will pay all expenses relating to the registration, offering and listing of these shares of Class A common stock, except that the selling stockholders will pay any underwriting fees, discounts and commissions, placement fees of underwriters, broker commissions, transfer taxes and certain attorney's fees. Pursuant to the terms of the Registration Rights Agreements, we agreed to indemnify the selling stockholders against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and the selling stockholders have agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, which may arise from any written information furnished to us by the selling stockholders expressly for use in this prospectus and/or in any prospectus supplement, as applicable.

Under applicable rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, any person engaged in the distribution of the resale shares of Class A common stock may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to the Class A common stock for the applicable restricted period, as defined in Regulation M, prior to the commencement of the distribution. In addition, the selling stockholders will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of the Class A common stock by the selling stockholders or any other person. We will make copies of this prospectus available to the selling stockholders and have informed them of the need to deliver a copy of this prospectus to each purchaser at or prior to the time of the sale (including by compliance with Rule 172 under the Securities Act).

There can be no assurances that the selling stockholders will sell, nor are the selling stockholders required to sell, any or all of the shares of Class A common stock offered under this prospectus.

To the extent required pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreements, this prospectus may be amended and/or supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution. If required by the terms of the applicable Registration Rights Agreement, we may add permitted transferees, successors and donees by prospectus supplement in instances where the permitted transferee, successor or donee has acquired its shares from holders named in this prospectus after the effective date of this prospectus. Permitted transferees, successors and assigns of identified selling stockholders may not be able to use this prospectus for resales until they are named in the selling stockholders table by prospectus supplement or post-effective amendment. See "Selling Stockholders." Additional selling stockholders may be named in one or more prospectus supplements.
